About US

Situated in the Historic Town of Ilchester, The Ilchester Arms is a charming Grade II listed building built in the late 18th century with later extensions & yet it maintains many character features. Now a Family Ran Hotel With The Owners Brendan and Lucy McGee creating a home from home experience.

Ilchester is a village in South Somerset situated on the River Yeo, five miles north of Yeovil. During Roman times the village was named Lindinis & was the site of a fort & then a town on the Fosse Way.

The village has a nursery, 2 pre-schools, an infant school & a junior school. There is a Post Office offering a range of food products, stationary, sweets, cards, free cash withdrawals). A couple of pubs including The Bull Inn open 7 days a week 4pm-late, Also situated in the village is a petrol station with shop, Just Maria's Florist and a few other unique small businesses along the main street.

RESTAURANT

Living

Brendan McGee, head chef & patron, has created an extensive menu featuring modern British cuisine using fresh local produce. Brendan brings over 30 years experience to the Ilchester Arms kitchen and still maintains some of the traditional values of British cooking whilst including a twist of style and a pinch of contemporary ideas served up with a huge dollop of inspiration and enthusiasm.

Here At the Ilchester Arms Hotel we pride ourselves on using Fresh local produce, Our meat is purchased from Local butchers including lamb reared here in Ilchester & pork reared just up the road in Closworth, Our Fish is delivered daily from Brixham. We also have fresh fruit and Vegetables delivered Daily to assure our ingredients are as fresh as possible. In the evening we serve a full bistro menu complemented by our wine list. The menus change every few months to reflect the best of the seasonal produce.

We Are Happy to help Cater for all allergies and dietary requirements, See Our Menus for more information and contact us to book a table today.
